

Department Achievements

- First to acquire the latest and greatest full mission ship simulator in the year 2013.
- Achieved “A1 Outstanding” status in “DG Shipping Comprehensive inspection program” for six times in a row.
- Selected for International Association of Maritime Universities (IAMU) student forum held in International Maritime Organisation, London.
- Proven placement record every year with A.P.MOLLER MAERSK and several other giants in shipping industry.
- Best project award in the year 2018 in inter department competition → Best faculty award in the year 2018 and 2019.
- Best innovative project model – Ballast free ship – Twin gantry crane to reduce cycle time.
- Represented AMET for Innovative ideas seminars in Delhi in the year 2019.
- Has the maximum number of girl cadets who are placed with reputed shipping companies.
- Cadets of Nautical Science department represented AMET University in Technovision 2K23 and received the overall championship of Technovision 2K23.
- Cadets of Nautical Science department has donated 35000 library books on Gandhi Jayanthi Mega Book Donation Event.
- Cadets of Nautical Science Department has achieved the First Prize in Republic Day Parade.
- Cadets of nautical science department has achieved the overall championship in the PRAYAN which was conducted by Indian Maritime University, Navi Mumbai.