ACADEMY OF MARITIME EDUCATION AND TRAINING (AMET)

DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY CODE OF CONDUCT HANDBOOK FOR THE STAKEHOLDERS

This Code of Conduct Handbook is intended to define, regulate and guide the standards of behavior, responsibilities, professional ethics and institutional discipline applicable to all stakeholders of the University, including students, teachers, governing bodies, administrative staff and support personnel. The provisions contained herein are framed in alignment with the Memorandum of Association of the University, the applicable Rules and Regulations, and the prevailing statutory framework including the UGC Regulations governing Deemed to be Universities, student grievance redressal, anti-ragging and prevention of sexual harassment.

The Code shall be binding on all stakeholders and shall be read in conjunction with institutional policies, service rules, ordinances and statutory provisions.

Powers and Limitations of the Executive Council

- ✓ The Executive Council shall function as the principal executive body and the apex authority of the Institution Deemed to be University, entrusted with the responsibility of overall governance, policy formulation and institutional oversight. In exercise of its powers, the Executive Council shall ensure that all decisions relating to academic, administrative, financial, personnel and developmental matters are taken in accordance with the Memorandum of Association, applicable UGC Regulations and other statutory provisions.
- ✓ While the Executive Council shall act as the final decision-making authority in institutional matters, such authority shall be exercised in a manner consistent with the framework of shared governance, ensuring that the statutory roles and functional autonomy of other authorities of the University are respected. In cases where any authority has been assigned advisory or recommendatory functions, the Executive Council shall duly consider such recommendations before arriving at decisions.
- ✓ The Executive Council shall have the power to frame rules, policies and procedures governing the functioning of the University and may, by resolution, delegate such powers to the Vice-Chancellor or to any other officer or committee, subject to appropriate reporting, accountability and ratification mechanisms. Such delegation shall be exercised judiciously, ensuring that the ultimate responsibility for governance remains with the Executive Council.

Powers and Functions of the Academic Council

- ✓ The Academic Council shall be the principal academic authority of the University and shall be responsible for maintaining academic standards, regulating teaching, research and evaluation processes, and ensuring the quality of academic programmes.
- ✓ It shall prescribe courses and programmes of study leading to the award of degrees, diplomas and certificates, subject to approval of the Executive Council wherever required. The Academic Council shall ensure that such programmes are aligned with national regulatory standards and contemporary academic requirements.
- ✓ The Academic Council shall appoint examiners, moderators and other academic personnel in accordance with prescribed procedures, ensuring fairness, transparency and academic integrity in evaluation systems. It shall also recognize qualifications, diplomas and degrees from other institutions in accordance with applicable regulatory norms.

- ✓ The Academic Council shall frame rules and regulations governing academic functioning, including curriculum design, examination systems and academic integrity policies, subject to approval of the Executive Council. It shall also perform such other academic functions as may be assigned under the Rules and applicable regulations.

Powers and Functions of the Finance Committee

- ✓ The Finance Committee shall function as the financial advisory body of the University and shall play a critical role in ensuring financial discipline, transparency and sustainability.
- ✓ It shall consider the Annual Accounts and Financial Estimates of the University and submit them to the Executive Council for approval. It shall examine and recommend the Annual Budget and revised estimates, ensuring that financial planning is aligned with institutional priorities and available resources.
- ✓ The Finance Committee shall fix limits of recurring and non-recurring expenditure based on income and resource availability, ensuring prudent financial management in accordance with approved budgets and applicable financial regulations.
- ✓ No expenditure shall ordinarily be incurred beyond the approved budget without the prior approval of the Finance Committee or the competent authority as prescribed under the Rules, thereby ensuring financial accountability and control.
- ✓ Vice-Chancellor
- ✓ The Vice-Chancellor shall be the Principal Executive and Academic Officer of the University and shall be responsible for the overall administration, academic leadership and regulatory compliance of the institution.
- ✓ The Vice-Chancellor shall ensure effective implementation of policies and decisions of the Executive Council and shall exercise such powers as are prescribed under the Rules, subject to the provisions of the Memorandum of Association and applicable regulations.
- ✓ In situations requiring immediate action, the Vice-Chancellor may exercise emergency powers, provided that such actions are reported to the Executive Council at the earliest opportunity and are subject to review and ratification.
- ✓ The Vice-Chancellor shall also ensure that all disciplinary matters are handled in accordance with established procedures and principles of natural justice, and that statutory mechanisms such as grievance redressal systems, Internal Complaints Committee and Anti-Ragging bodies are effectively constituted and operational.

Registrar

- ✓ The Registrar shall be the chief administrative officer and custodian of records of the University and shall function under the direction and control of the Vice-Chancellor.
- ✓ The Registrar shall be responsible for maintaining official records, conducting institutional correspondence, and ensuring proper documentation of decisions of statutory authorities. The Registrar shall also coordinate administrative processes including arrangements for examinations in coordination with the Controller of Examinations.

- ✓ The Registrar shall have the authority to enter into agreements, sign documents and authenticate records on behalf of the University, as authorized. The Registrar shall also perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Executive Council or the Vice-Chancellor from time to time.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE STUDENTS

IN THE CAMPUS

- ✓ Students shall conduct themselves in a dignified, disciplined and courteous manner within the campus, hostels and all premises of the University. They shall adhere to acceptable standards of behaviour and shall maintain decorum in all academic, administrative and residential spaces, thereby contributing to a safe, inclusive and academically conducive environment.
- ✓ Students shall follow appropriate dress code, grooming standards and professional appearance as prescribed by the University from time to time, including specific requirements applicable to cadets and discipline-oriented programmes. They shall actively utilize all academic, training and institutional opportunities and shall demonstrate commitment towards academic excellence, skill development and professional growth.
- ✓ Students shall avoid loud, disruptive or inappropriate behaviour, including unnecessary arguments, disorderly conduct, public disturbances or demonstrations within the campus without prior permission of the competent authority. Any act that disturbs the academic atmosphere or affects institutional discipline shall be treated as misconduct.
- ✓ Students shall devote themselves sincerely to their academic pursuits and shall attend all classes, practical sessions, drills, parades, physical training and institutional activities as prescribed. Participation in safety programmes including fire drills and emergency preparedness exercises shall be mandatory.
- ✓ Students shall strictly refrain from engaging in ragging in any form. Ragging is a criminal offence and shall be dealt with strictly in accordance with the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging and applicable laws. Any involvement, abetment or failure to report ragging incidents shall attract severe disciplinary action.
- ✓ Students shall not indulge in any act that lowers the dignity, reputation or discipline of the University. Smoking, consumption, possession or influence of alcohol, narcotic substances or any intoxicants within the campus or during institutional activities is strictly prohibited and shall attract disciplinary action as per rules.
- ✓ Students shall not tamper with or misuse any safety equipment including fire-fighting systems, alarms or emergency infrastructure. They shall comply with all safety instructions issued by the University and shall actively contribute to maintaining a safe campus environment.
- ✓ Students shall maintain punctuality and regularity in attending classes and shall adhere strictly to academic discipline. Use of electronic devices shall be restricted to academic purposes, and any misuse including unauthorized recording, cyber misconduct or disruption of teaching-learning processes shall be treated as misconduct.

Students shall respect faculty members, staff, authorities and fellow students and shall maintain discipline in classrooms, laboratories and all academic spaces. Academic integrity shall be strictly maintained, and acts such as plagiarism, impersonation, cheating or falsification shall be dealt with as per institutional regulations.

IN THE HOSTEL

- ✓ Students residing in hostels shall maintain high standards of discipline, hygiene, safety and personal responsibility. Hostel accommodation is a privilege subject to adherence to rules prescribed by the University and Hostel Administration.
- ✓ Students shall reside only in the rooms allotted to them and shall not occupy or shift to any other room without prior permission of the Warden or Proctor. Unauthorized change of accommodation or inter-hostel movement shall be treated as a violation of hostel discipline.
- ✓ Students shall maintain cleanliness within their rooms, corridors, bathrooms and common areas. Waste shall be disposed of only in designated areas, and damage to hostel property or infrastructure shall attract penalties and recovery of costs.
- ✓ Students shall not bring or store food items, cooking materials or electrical appliances such as induction stoves, heaters or cooking vessels inside hostel premises, and cooking within hostel rooms is strictly prohibited in the interest of safety and hygiene.
- ✓ Students shall strictly adhere to hostel timings, attendance schedules, movement restrictions and leave procedures as prescribed. They shall vacate hostel premises during academic hours unless prior permission is obtained from the competent authority.
- ✓ Entry and exit from hostels shall be regulated through gate passes and registers, and all students shall comply with procedures relating to short leave, in-time and out-time, as prescribed by the Proctor or authorized officers. Late entry or absence without permission shall be treated as a serious violation.
- ✓ Students shall not be present outside their rooms during designated attendance and silent hours and shall strictly adhere to discipline requirements during night hours. Silence shall be maintained during prescribed hours to ensure a conducive environment for rest and study.
- ✓ Students shall not organize parties, celebrations or unauthorized gatherings within hostel premises. Visitors shall not be permitted inside hostel areas and may meet students only at designated reception areas with prior approval and within prescribed visiting hours.
- ✓ Students shall not possess or use alcohol, tobacco, drugs, weapons, firecrackers or any prohibited substances within hostel premises. Any violation shall invite strict disciplinary action including suspension or expulsion, subject to due process.
- ✓ Students shall take responsibility for their personal belongings and valuables and shall ensure proper locking of rooms and storage facilities. The University shall not be responsible for loss due to negligence.
- ✓ Students shall not engage in ragging, indiscipline, arguments with hostel authorities, security personnel or staff. Any such behaviour shall be treated seriously and shall attract disciplinary action.
- ✓ Students shall comply with all instructions issued by the Proctor, Warden, Duty Officers and Hostel Administration, and failure to comply shall be treated as misconduct.

FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- ✓ International students shall comply with all applicable laws and regulatory requirements governing their stay in India, including visa regulations, passport validity, registration with authorities such as FRRO, and any other statutory requirements.

- ✓ They shall carry valid identification and travel documents at all times and shall ensure timely renewal of visas and compliance with institutional and governmental requirements.
- ✓ International students shall respect the cultural, social and institutional norms of the country and the University and shall maintain conduct consistent with academic and legal expectations.
- ✓ They shall not engage in any activity that violates Indian laws or University regulations. Any criminal or unlawful act shall be dealt with under applicable laws in addition to institutional disciplinary procedures.
- ✓ Students shall comply with admission requirements including language proficiency norms such as IELTS or equivalent where applicable and shall adhere to all academic regulations.

PUNISHMENT FOR FORGERY

Any student found guilty of forgery, falsification of records, submission of fraudulent documents or misrepresentation of facts shall be subjected to strict disciplinary action, including cancellation of admission or expulsion from the University, following due verification, enquiry and approval of the competent authority.

SAFETY

- ✓ The University shall take all reasonable measures to ensure the safety and security of students within the campus and hostel premises. However, students shall be individually responsible for complying with all safety instructions, security protocols and emergency procedures issued by the University.
- ✓ Students shall not engage in any activity that endangers their own safety or that of others, including entering restricted areas, unsafe practices or unauthorized access to facilities.

DISCIPLINE / BREACH

- ✓ Any breach of discipline, violation of the Code of Conduct or non-compliance with University rules shall attract appropriate disciplinary action. Such action may include warning, fine, suspension, withdrawal of hostel facilities, withholding of academic privileges or expulsion, depending on the nature and severity of the offence.
- ✓ All disciplinary actions shall be taken only after following due process, including enquiry, opportunity for explanation and approval of the competent authority, in accordance with principles of natural justice and applicable regulations.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR FACULTY MEMBERS

GENERAL CONDUCT

- ✓ Faculty members of the University shall conduct themselves with the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, dignity and responsibility, consistent with their role as educators, mentors and representatives of the academic community. They shall uphold the values of the University and shall contribute to the advancement of knowledge, discipline and institutional reputation.
- ✓ Every faculty member shall maintain absolute integrity, devotion to duty and commitment to academic excellence. They shall perform their duties with sincerity, fairness and impartiality and shall avoid any conduct that is unbecoming of a teacher or that adversely affects the image of the University.

- ✓ Faculty members shall act in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Association, University Rules, UGC Regulations and other applicable statutory guidelines.

ACADEMIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- ✓ Faculty members shall discharge their academic responsibilities diligently, including teaching, mentoring, curriculum development, evaluation and research activities. They shall ensure effective delivery of course content, maintain academic standards and adopt appropriate pedagogical practices.
- ✓ They shall engage in continuous professional development and remain updated in their respective disciplines. Faculty members shall contribute to academic planning, participate in departmental activities, and support institutional initiatives for quality enhancement.
- ✓ Faculty members shall ensure regularity and punctuality in teaching, completion of syllabus within prescribed timelines, and conduct of assessments in a fair and transparent manner.

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND INTEGRITY

- ✓ Faculty members shall adhere to the highest standards of professional ethics as prescribed by the University Grants Commission and other regulatory bodies. They shall not engage in plagiarism, data fabrication, falsification of research findings or any form of academic misconduct.
- ✓ They shall ensure that all research, publications and academic contributions comply with ethical standards, including proper citation practices and adherence to guidelines relating to research integrity and publication ethics.
- ✓ Faculty members shall not misuse their academic position for personal gain or for securing undue advantage for themselves or others.

RELATIONSHIP WITH STUDENTS

- ✓ Faculty members shall treat students with fairness, respect and dignity and shall maintain a professional relationship at all times. They shall not discriminate against students on the basis of gender, caste, religion, nationality or any other ground.
- ✓ Faculty members shall encourage critical thinking, academic engagement and ethical conduct among students and shall act as mentors and role models.
- ✓ They shall not engage in any form of harassment, intimidation, exploitation or inappropriate conduct towards students.
- ✓ All interactions with students shall be conducted in a transparent and professional manner, maintaining appropriate boundaries at all times.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND GENDER SENSITIVITY

- ✓ Faculty members shall comply with the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and University policies relating to prevention of sexual harassment.

- ✓ They shall contribute to maintaining a safe, inclusive and gender-sensitive environment within the campus. Any complaint of sexual harassment involving faculty members shall be dealt with by the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in accordance with statutory provisions.
- ✓ Faculty members shall cooperate fully with proceedings of the ICC and shall maintain confidentiality in such matters.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND OUTSIDE ENGAGEMENT

- ✓ Faculty members shall avoid situations of conflict of interest between their personal interests and official duties. Any such conflict shall be disclosed to the competent authority.
- ✓ Faculty members shall not engage in any outside employment, consultancy, business or professional activity without prior written permission of the University, except where permitted under institutional policies.

USE OF UNIVERSITY RESOURCES

- ✓ Faculty members shall ensure proper and responsible use of University property, facilities, laboratories, equipment and resources. They shall not misuse institutional resources for personal purposes.
- ✓ They shall safeguard institutional assets and shall be accountable for any loss or damage caused due to negligence or misconduct.

DIGITAL AND PUBLIC CONDUCT

- ✓ Faculty members shall maintain responsible and professional conduct in digital platforms, including social media and online communication. They shall not make any public statements that adversely affect the reputation or interests of the University without prior authorization.
- ✓ They shall ensure that academic content, institutional data and official communications are not misused or disclosed without proper authority.

DISCIPLINE AND CONDUCT

- ✓ Faculty members shall maintain discipline in attendance, punctuality and performance of duties. They shall comply with all institutional rules, administrative instructions and lawful directions issued by competent authorities.
- ✓ They shall not engage in activities such as insubordination, disruption of academic functioning, or any act prejudicial to institutional discipline.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL AND PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY

- ✓ Faculty members shall follow the prescribed channels for submission of grievances and shall not bypass institutional mechanisms except where permitted under applicable regulations.
- ✓ They shall cooperate with institutional committees, audits and reviews and shall maintain transparency in professional conduct.

MISCONDUCT

Any act of omission or commission in violation of the provisions of this Code of Conduct or University Rules shall constitute misconduct. Misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, negligence of duty, insubordination, academic dishonesty, harassment, misuse of authority, breach of confidentiality, unauthorized absence, or any act prejudicial to the interests of the University.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- ✓ Disciplinary proceedings against faculty members shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice. The faculty member shall be informed of the charges and shall be given an opportunity to submit an explanation.
- ✓ Where necessary, an enquiry shall be conducted by a duly constituted committee or an Enquiry Officer. The faculty member shall be given reasonable opportunity to present his or her case.
- ✓ Based on the findings of the enquiry, the competent authority shall take appropriate action in accordance with the Rules of the University.

PENALTIES

- ✓ Depending on the nature and gravity of misconduct, penalties may include warning, censure, withholding of increments, suspension, demotion, compulsory retirement, removal or dismissal from service.
- ✓ All penalties shall be imposed only after following due process and with the approval of the competent authority.

APPEAL

- ✓ A faculty member aggrieved by any disciplinary action shall have the right to appeal within the prescribed time to the appropriate authority as per the Rules of the University.
- ✓ Where applicable, grievance redressal mechanisms and higher authorities may be approached in accordance with institutional procedures and applicable regulations.

1. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM FOR STUDENTS AND STAKEHOLDERS

- ✓ The University shall establish and maintain a comprehensive, transparent and accessible grievance redressal mechanism for students and other stakeholders in alignment with the UGC (Redressal of Grievances of Students) Regulations, 2023 and other applicable regulatory provisions.
- ✓ The University shall constitute a Student Grievance Redressal Committee (SGRC) to address grievances relating to academic matters, administrative issues, facilities, evaluation, discrimination, or any other matter affecting students. The SGRC shall function in a fair, impartial and time-bound manner, ensuring that all grievances are examined objectively and resolved in accordance with prescribed procedures.
- ✓ The University shall provide an online grievance redressal portal, accessible through the official website, to enable students to submit complaints and track their status. The mechanism shall ensure transparency, confidentiality (where required), and timely disposal of grievances.

- ✓ In addition to the institutional mechanism, the University shall facilitate access to external grievance platforms, including portals of regulatory bodies such as UGC and AICTE, and shall display such links prominently on the University website for the benefit of students.
- ✓ The University shall also ensure effective handling of grievances received through national platforms such as the e-Samadhan portal. The Dean (Student Welfare) or such designated officer shall monitor and coordinate the resolution of grievances received through these portals, ensuring prompt response and compliance with regulatory expectations.
- ✓ An Ombudsperson shall be appointed by the University in accordance with UGC Regulations to provide an independent appellate mechanism. Students aggrieved by the decisions of the SGRC may approach the Ombudsperson for further redressal. The recommendations of the Ombudsperson shall be considered and implemented in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
- ✓ All stakeholders shall utilize the prescribed grievance redressal mechanisms in a responsible manner, and any misuse of the system shall be liable for appropriate action.

2. ANTI-RAGGING MECHANISM AND COMPLIANCE

- ✓ The University shall strictly comply with the provisions of the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 and shall adopt a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging in any form.
- ✓ The University shall constitute an Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squad as per regulatory requirements, with clearly defined roles and responsibilities for prevention, monitoring and action against ragging.
- ✓ The Anti-Ragging Committee shall be responsible for policy formulation, oversight and review of preventive measures, while the Anti-Ragging Squad shall function as a monitoring and enforcement body to ensure that ragging does not occur within the campus or hostel premises.
- ✓ The University shall implement preventive measures including awareness programmes, sensitization sessions, student undertakings, monitoring of vulnerable areas, and strict supervision within hostels and campus premises.
- ✓ Students shall have access to institutional grievance mechanisms as well as external platforms, including UGC Anti-Ragging portals and helplines, and the University shall ensure prompt response to complaints received through such channels.
- ✓ Any complaint of ragging shall be dealt with immediately, and the matter shall be enquired into in accordance with prescribed procedures, ensuring fairness and adherence to principles of natural justice. Students found guilty of ragging shall be subject to strict disciplinary action, including suspension, expulsion, cancellation of admission, and initiation of legal proceedings as applicable.
- ✓ Failure to report incidents of ragging or abetment thereof shall also be treated as misconduct.

3. SEXUAL HARASSMENT REDRESSAL AND INTERNAL COMPLAINTS MECHANISM

- ✓ The University shall ensure full compliance with the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and shall maintain a safe, secure and gender-sensitive environment for all stakeholders.
- ✓ An Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) shall be constituted in accordance with statutory provisions, including representation from external members, and shall function as the designated body to receive, inquire into and recommend action on complaints of sexual harassment.

- ✓ The ICC shall conduct its proceedings in a fair, impartial and confidential manner, ensuring adherence to the principles of natural justice. It shall provide reasonable opportunity to all parties to present their case and shall complete inquiries within the prescribed time limits.
- ✓ The University shall create awareness among students and staff regarding the provisions of the Act, the functioning of the ICC and the procedures for lodging complaints. Gender sensitization programmes shall be conducted periodically to promote a respectful and inclusive campus environment.
- ✓ Complaints of sexual harassment may be submitted through designated channels, including institutional mechanisms and grievance portals, and shall be addressed promptly by the ICC. The recommendations of the ICC shall be implemented by the competent authority in accordance with applicable rules.
- ✓ The confidentiality of proceedings shall be strictly maintained, and any breach of confidentiality shall be treated as a serious violation.
- ✓ Any person found guilty of sexual harassment shall be liable for disciplinary action, which may include suspension, expulsion, termination or other penalties as deemed appropriate based on the severity of the offence.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

GENERAL CONDUCT AND PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

- ✓ Administrative staff of the University shall conduct themselves with integrity, discipline, professionalism and a high sense of responsibility, recognizing their critical role in supporting the academic and administrative functions of the institution.
- ✓ Every member of the administrative staff shall maintain absolute integrity, devotion to duty and accountability in the discharge of assigned responsibilities. They shall act in a manner that upholds the dignity, reputation and credibility of the University and shall avoid any conduct that is unbecoming of a public-serving institutional functionary.
- ✓ Administrative staff shall function in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Association, Rules and Regulations of the University, and applicable statutory guidelines, and shall comply with all lawful instructions issued by competent authorities.

DUTIES AND PERFORMANCE OF WORK

- ✓ Administrative staff shall perform their duties efficiently, diligently and within prescribed timelines. They shall ensure accuracy in documentation, record-keeping, correspondence and processing of institutional matters.
- ✓ They shall provide prompt and courteous service to students, faculty members and other stakeholders and shall contribute to the smooth functioning of administrative processes. Deliberate delay, negligence or dereliction of duty shall be treated as misconduct.
- ✓ Administrative staff shall maintain punctuality, regular attendance and discipline in the workplace and shall adhere to prescribed working hours and institutional schedules.

INTEGRITY AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

- ✓ Administrative staff shall maintain the highest standards of honesty, transparency and ethical conduct in all official dealings. They shall not engage in any act of corruption, bribery, favouritism or misuse of official position.
- ✓ They shall not use their position to secure undue advantage for themselves or for any other person. Acceptance of gifts, monetary benefits or favours that may influence official decisions shall be strictly prohibited.
- ✓ All decisions and actions shall be taken in a fair, impartial and non-discriminatory manner.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

- ✓ Administrative staff shall maintain strict confidentiality of official information, records, documents and data handled in the course of their duties. They shall not disclose or misuse any confidential information for personal or unauthorized purposes.
- ✓ This obligation shall continue even after cessation of service. Administrative staff shall ensure proper handling, storage and protection of institutional data, including digital records, in accordance with applicable policies.

RELATIONSHIP WITH STUDENTS AND FACULTY

- ✓ Administrative staff shall interact with students, faculty members and other stakeholders in a courteous, respectful and professional manner. They shall not engage in any behaviour that is discriminatory, abusive or inappropriate.
- ✓ They shall provide necessary assistance and guidance to students and faculty in administrative matters and shall ensure that institutional services are delivered efficiently and transparently.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND WORKPLACE CONDUCT

- ✓ Administrative staff shall comply with the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and University policies relating to prevention of sexual harassment.
- ✓ They shall contribute to maintaining a safe, respectful and inclusive workplace environment. Any complaint of sexual harassment involving administrative staff shall be dealt with by the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in accordance with statutory provisions.
- ✓ Administrative staff shall cooperate with proceedings of the ICC and shall maintain confidentiality of such proceedings.

USE OF UNIVERSITY PROPERTY AND RESOURCES

- ✓ Administrative staff shall ensure proper use and safeguarding of University property, infrastructure, equipment and resources entrusted to them. They shall not misuse institutional resources for personal purposes.
- ✓ Any loss, damage or misuse of property due to negligence or misconduct shall attract appropriate action.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

- ✓ Administrative staff shall avoid situations of conflict of interest between personal interests and official responsibilities. Any such conflict shall be disclosed to the competent authority.
- ✓ They shall not engage in any external employment, trade, business or professional activity without prior written permission of the University, except as permitted under institutional rules.

- ✓ Administrative staff shall maintain responsible conduct in digital platforms and official communication systems. They shall not misuse email systems, databases, or institutional communication channels.
- ✓ They shall not make any public statement or social media communication that adversely affects the reputation or interests of the University without prior authorization.

DISCIPLINE AND COMPLIANCE

- ✓ Administrative staff shall comply with all institutional rules, procedures and lawful directions issued by competent authorities. They shall maintain discipline in their conduct and shall not engage in acts such as insubordination, unauthorized absence, disruption of work or violation of institutional policies.
- ✓ They shall also comply with institutional mechanisms such as grievance redressal systems, audit processes and regulatory requirements.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL AND ACCOUNTABILITY

- ✓ Administrative staff shall follow prescribed channels for submission of grievances and shall not bypass institutional mechanisms except where permitted under applicable rules.
- ✓ They shall cooperate with grievance redressal processes, inquiries and institutional reviews, and shall maintain transparency and accountability in their actions.

MISCONDUCT

Any act of omission or commission in violation of this Code of Conduct or the Rules of the University shall constitute misconduct. Misconduct shall include negligence of duty, breach of confidentiality, insubordination, corruption, misuse of authority, harassment, unauthorized absence or any act prejudicial to the interests of the University.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- ✓ Disciplinary proceedings against administrative staff shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice. The concerned employee shall be informed of the charges and shall be given an opportunity to submit an explanation.
- ✓ Where necessary, an enquiry shall be conducted by a duly constituted committee or an Enquiry Officer. The employee shall be given reasonable opportunity to present his or her case.

- ✓ Based on the findings of the enquiry, appropriate action shall be taken by the competent authority in accordance with the Rules of the University.

PENALTIES

- ✓ Depending on the nature and gravity of misconduct, penalties may include warning, censure, withholding of increments, suspension, reduction in rank, compulsory retirement, removal or dismissal from service.
- ✓ All penalties shall be imposed only after following due process and approval of the competent authority.

APPEAL

- ✓ An administrative staff member aggrieved by any disciplinary action shall have the right to appeal within the prescribed time to the appropriate authority as per the Rules of the University.
- ✓ The appeal shall be considered in accordance with institutional procedures, and the decision of the competent authority shall be binding, subject to applicable regulations.

1. General Principles / Institutional Values of Conduct

- ✓ The University shall be guided by the principles of integrity, transparency, accountability, inclusiveness and respect for diversity in all its academic and administrative functions. All stakeholders shall conduct themselves in a manner that upholds the dignity of the institution and promotes a safe, equitable and professional environment.
- ✓ The University adopts a zero-tolerance approach towards ragging, sexual harassment, discrimination, corruption and academic misconduct. All stakeholders shall contribute to maintaining ethical standards, gender sensitivity, environmental responsibility and mutual respect within the campus.

2. Conflict of Interest and Ethical Standards

- ✓ All stakeholders shall avoid situations where personal interests conflict, or may appear to conflict, with their official duties and responsibilities. Any such conflict shall be disclosed to the competent authority, and the individual concerned shall recuse from related decision-making processes.
- ✓ No stakeholder shall use his or her position to secure undue advantage for self or others. All actions shall be guided by fairness, impartiality and ethical responsibility in accordance with institutional policies and applicable regulations.

3. Use of University Name, Logo and Institutional Representation

- ✓ No stakeholder shall use the name, logo or identity of the University for personal, commercial or unauthorized purposes without prior written approval of the competent authority.
- ✓ No stakeholder shall make public statements, representations or communications, including through media or digital platforms, on behalf of the University unless duly authorized. Any misuse that affects the reputation or interests of the University shall attract appropriate action.

4. Digital Conduct, IT Usage and Data Protection (Common Policy Section)

- ✓ All stakeholders shall ensure responsible use of digital resources, information systems and communication platforms of the University. Unauthorized access, misuse, alteration or dissemination of institutional data, academic material or confidential information is strictly prohibited.
- ✓ Stakeholders shall adhere to principles of data protection, privacy and cyber ethics. Use of electronic devices and online platforms shall not disrupt academic or administrative activities or violate institutional policies.

5. Implementation, Interpretation and Amendment of Code of Conduct

- ✓ This Code of Conduct shall be implemented under the authority of the Executive Council. The Vice-Chancellor shall be responsible for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Code.
- ✓ Any question relating to interpretation of this Code shall be referred to the competent authority, whose decision shall be final, subject to applicable regulations. The University reserves the right to amend, modify or update this Code from time to time with the approval of the Executive Council.

6. Protection Against False or Malicious Complaints

- ✓ While the University encourages reporting of genuine grievances and complaints, any complaint found to be false, malicious or made with intent to defame or harass shall be treated as misconduct and shall attract appropriate disciplinary action.
- ✓ This provision shall, however, not discourage bona fide complaints made in good faith, even if such complaints are not substantiated after enquiry.

7. Reporting of Violations / Whistleblower Mechanism

- ✓ All stakeholders are encouraged to report any violation of the Code of Conduct, unethical practices or misconduct through the prescribed institutional mechanisms.
- ✓ The University shall ensure that such complaints are handled in a fair and confidential manner and that no adverse action is taken against any person reporting a violation in good faith.

8. Acknowledgement and Undertaking of Code of Conduct

- ✓ All stakeholders, including students, faculty and staff, shall acknowledge and undertake to abide by the provisions of this Code of Conduct at the time of admission, appointment or engagement with the University.
