CHAPTER 14

Recruitment Policy of AMET

AMET has the policy of recruiting personnel who are imbued with quality, dedication and motivation to perform to the optimum level together with a strong sense of belongingness towards the Institution for all its teaching and administrative cadres. Such recruitment shall be undertaken in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Association, applicable Rules of the University and the UGC (Institutions Deemed to be Universities) Regulations, 2023. As such, performing candidates could be assured that their services would be effectively utilized and recognized, inasmuch as AMET shall not compromise on the quality of teaching and administrative efficiency. Hence, AMET shall ensure selection of the right person for the right position through a transparent, fair and merit-based process.

Appointment of Faculty Positions

- ✓ The number of teaching posts in each Department shall be determined based on the prescribed teacher-student ratio, workload norms, programme requirements and applicable UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations. The requirement of faculty shall be assessed by the respective Heads of Departments and placed before the competent authority for approval.
- ✓ As and when vacancies arise or new posts are created due to academic or administrative exigencies, the University shall issue advertisements in leading newspapers and on the official website, ensuring wide publicity and transparency. The advertisement shall clearly specify the details of the post, pay structure, qualifications, experience and other essential and desirable criteria, in conformity with UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations and statutory norms.
- ✓ Selection Committees shall be duly constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Association and applicable UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations, and the selection process shall be based on merit, academic credentials, experience and performance in the selection process.

- ✓ The recommendations of the Selection Committee shall be recorded and placed before the Executive Council. Appointments shall be made only after approval of the Executive Council, which shall be the competent authority for such appointments.

Appointment of Administrative Positions

- ✓ Administrative posts shall be classified into different categories as per the institutional requirements and organizational structure of the University.
- ✓ The post of Registrar, Controller of Examinations and such other senior administrative positions, as may be determined by the Executive Council, shall be filled through a transparent selection process. Such appointments shall be made strictly in accordance with UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations and the provisions of the Memorandum of Association.
- ✓ Advertisements for these positions shall be issued in leading newspapers and hosted on the University website specifying qualifications, experience and other criteria. Selection Committees shall be constituted as per prescribed norms, and their recommendations shall be placed before the Executive Council for approval. The Executive Council shall make the final appointment based on such recommendations.
- ✓ The posts of Deputy Registrar, Assistant Registrar and equivalent positions shall be filled either through direct recruitment or promotion, based on merit, seniority, experience and suitability, as per the approved recruitment rules of the University.
- ✓ Engagement of retired personnel, where necessary, shall be made strictly on contractual or re-employment basis, with prior approval of the competent authority and subject to applicable norms.

- ✓ The posts of Assistants, Section Officers and equivalent staff shall be filled based on prescribed qualifications, including graduation from a recognized University and necessary technical competencies. Promotional avenues shall be available based on performance, experience and suitability as assessed through institutional mechanisms.
- ✓ Support staff including Office Assistants, Attenders, Security personnel, Housekeeping and Maintenance staff shall be appointed based on prescribed minimum qualifications and skill requirements relevant to the nature of duties.

Creation of Posts and Appointments

- ✓ The creation of posts, both teaching and non-teaching, shall be approved by the Executive Council based on institutional requirements, financial viability and regulatory norms. The Vice-Chancellor may recommend creation of such posts, subject to approval of the Executive Council.
- ✓ Appointments shall be made based on the recommendations of duly constituted Selection Committees and approval of the competent authority.
- ✓ All appointments shall be made on probation for a prescribed period, normally two years, subject to extension or confirmation based on satisfactory performance as per institutional rules.

Service Conditions

- ✓ All staff members shall be eligible for annual increments as per institutional norms, subject to satisfactory performance and conduct. Grant of increments shall be subject to performance appraisal and absence of disciplinary proceedings resulting in penalties.

- ✓ Teaching staff shall be eligible for vacation as per academic calendar prescribed by the University. All staff members shall be entitled to leave as per leave rules approved by the Executive Council.
- ✓ Service conditions including pay, allowances, leave, promotion and other benefits shall be governed by the Rules of the University, in alignment with UGC Regulations wherever applicable.

General

- ✓ All staff members, both teaching and non-teaching, shall abide by the Code of Conduct and Service Rules prescribed by the University. They shall discharge their duties in accordance with the responsibilities assigned to their respective positions.
- ✓ The recruitment, appointment and service conditions shall at all times remain subject to the provisions of the Memorandum of Association, Rules of the University and applicable UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations, and in case of any inconsistency, such statutory provisions shall prevail.

CHAPTER 15

Appointment and Conditions of Service of Teaching Staff of AMET

1. Categories of Teachers

Teachers of AMET shall be of the following categories, namely:

- A. Professor
- B. Associate Professor
- C. Assistant Professor
- D. Such other academic positions as may be recognized by the University and permitted under UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations from time to time, including adjunct faculty, visiting faculty, Professor of Practice or equivalent positions.

2. Appointment of Teachers

Teachers of AMET shall be appointed by the Executive Council based on the recommendations of a duly constituted Selection Committee.

The recruitment shall be based on merit through all-India advertisement and in accordance with the UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations on minimum qualifications, selection procedure and maintenance of standards in higher education.

3. Composition of Selection Committee

The Composition of the Selection Committee shall be as follows:

- a) The Vice-Chancellor – Chairperson
- b) A nominee of the Chancellor, wherever required under the provisions of the MoA or applicable Regulations
- c) One or more Experts in the concerned subject nominated by the Vice-Chancellor
- d) Head of the Department
- e) One or two Internal Members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor on behalf of the Executive Council

f) Dean of the Faculty / School, wherever applicable

g) At least two external subject experts from a panel approved by the competent authority, in line with UGC/AICTE/DGS norms

h) A representative belonging to SC/ST/OBC/Minority/Women/Differently-abled category, wherever applicable as per Government/UGC norms

At least four members, including one outside subject expert, shall constitute the quorum.

However, wherever UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations prescribe a higher quorum or specific composition, such provisions shall prevail.

4. Qualifications

- ✓ No person shall be appointed to any teaching position unless he/she fulfills the minimum qualifications, eligibility conditions and experience prescribed by the UGC/AICTE/DGS from time to time.
- ✓ In disciplines governed by statutory councils (such as maritime, technical or professional bodies), the norms prescribed by such regulatory authorities shall also be complied with.

5. Duties of Teachers

- ✓ The duties of the Associate Professor and Assistant Professor shall be to teach and engage in research. The duties of the Professor shall, in addition to teaching and research, include guidance and administration of the Department in consultation and cooperation with colleagues.
- ✓ All teachers shall also undertake academic, administrative, research, extension and institutional responsibilities as assigned by the University from time to time.

6. Outside Engagement

- ✓ A paid teacher of the University shall not engage in remunerative work other than that of his/her official duties without prior permission of the Executive Council.
- ✓ Such permission shall be granted subject to the condition that such engagement does not conflict with institutional responsibilities, does not affect academic duties and complies with UGC/AICTE/DGS norms relating to professional ethics and conflict of interest.

7. Code of Conduct

- ✓ A paid teacher of AMET shall follow the Code of Professional Ethics as furnished in Appendix B and the Code of Conduct, discipline, avoidance of sexual harassment and maintenance of equality of opportunity as furnished in Appendix C.
- ✓ Such codes shall be in conformity with prevailing UGC/AICTE/DGS Regulations, including provisions relating to prevention of sexual harassment, prohibition of discrimination and promotion of equity and inclusion.

8. Promotion and Career Advancement

- ✓ Teachers shall be considered for promotion to the next cadre as per prescribed norms.
- ✓ Promotion shall be governed by the Career Advancement Scheme (CAS) and other applicable provisions of UGC Regulations, based on academic performance, research contributions, teaching effectiveness and other criteria notified from time to time.
- ✓ The University shall adopt and implement UGC-prescribed Academic Performance Indicators / Academic Levels or equivalent evaluation systems.

9. Probation

- ✓ Candidates appointed for faculty positions shall be on probation for a period of two years from the date of joining. This rule shall not apply to persons employed on a contractual basis.
- ✓ A teacher shall be considered confirmed only upon satisfactory completion of probation and issuance of written orders.
- ✓ The period of probation may be extended at the discretion of the Executive Council. If the performance of the probationer is found unsatisfactory, his/her services may be terminated.
- ✓ A probationer shall be assessed based on teaching performance, research output, conduct, institutional contribution and adherence to University policies.

10. Termination during Probation

- ✓ A teacher on probation is liable to be terminated at any point during the probation period.
- ✓ Such termination shall be in accordance with applicable service rules and principles of natural justice, wherever required.

11. Confirmation

- ✓ On satisfactory completion of probation, the Executive Council may confirm a teacher through a written order.
- ✓ If no confirmation order is issued, the probation period shall be deemed extended until such confirmation.
- ✓ Confirmation shall be subject to verification of performance, integrity, qualifications and compliance with institutional and regulatory requirements.

12. Service Agreement

- ✓ Every teacher appointed shall execute a service agreement with the University, as per applicable rules, clearly specifying the terms and conditions of service.

13. Contractual and Temporary Appointments

- ✓ The University may appoint teachers on contractual or temporary basis against sanctioned posts, strictly in accordance with UGC Regulations, for limited periods and under defined conditions.
- ✓ Such appointments shall not substitute regular recruitment and shall be made only to meet temporary academic requirements.

14. General Provision

It is open to the Executive Council to frame further bye-laws in respect of matters contained in this Chapter.

- ✓ All provisions relating to appointment, promotion and service conditions shall be subject to the Memorandum of Association, Rules of the University and applicable UGC Regulations, and in case of any inconsistency, such statutory provisions shall prevail.
- ✓ The University may engage distinguished professionals, industry experts, practitioners or persons of eminence as “Professor of Practice” in accordance with the guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission from time to time. Such engagement shall be for a fixed tenure and shall be in addition to the sanctioned faculty strength of the University, without affecting regular faculty recruitment. Persons with significant professional experience, normally of at least fifteen years at a senior level, may be considered for such engagement even without conventional academic qualifications, subject to their ability to contribute to teaching, research, innovation, skilling and industry-academia collaboration. The selection shall be based on a duly constituted committee and approved by the Academic Council and Executive Council. The number of Professors of Practice shall not exceed the limits prescribed by UGC, and their roles, responsibilities, tenure and remuneration shall be governed by applicable guidelines and institutional policies.

Qualifications Prescribed for Faculties of Maritime Studies (DGS Courses) in AMET

- ✓ Due to the distinct nature of competency required to impart maritime knowledge and skill sets, the following qualifications are prescribed for appointment of faculty in AMET, in accordance with the Guidelines of the Directorate General of Shipping, Government of India.
- ✓ All appointments shall also comply with the applicable provisions of the STCW Convention, Directorate General of Shipping Orders, UGC and AICTE Regulations wherever academic qualifications are prescribed.

ADDITIONAL COMPLIANCE CLAUSE

All faculty engaged for maritime courses shall comply with the requirements of the Directorate General of shipping relating to qualifications, experience, instructional training (VICT/AECS), age limits, teaching hours and quality standards under STCW Convention. The University shall ensure that faculty strength, composition (full-time and visiting), and course delivery comply with DGS norms and shall maintain records and disclosures as required during inspections and audits.

1. General Compliance with DGS Requirements

All Maritime training programmes of the University shall comply with the requirements of the Directorate General of Shipping (DGS) relating to faculty qualifications, experience, instructional capability, teaching hours, age limits and quality standards as prescribed from time to time. The University shall ensure adherence to the provisions of the STCW Convention, including Sections A-I/6 and A-I/8 relating to training and assessment standards.

2. Instructional Competency and Training (VICT/AECS)

All faculty members, instructors and assessors engaged in maritime training shall possess appropriate instructional competence and shall undergo "Vertical Integration Course for Trainers (VICT)" or equivalent courses within the prescribed time from the date of appointment. Such faculty shall be capable of applying modern instructional techniques, simulator-based training (where applicable), and assessment methodologies in accordance with DGS guidelines.

3. Qualification and Competency Requirements

All faculty members shall possess qualifications and experience appropriate to the level and type of course being conducted, including valid Certificates of Competency (CoC) recognized under the STCW Convention. Faculty shall have relevant sailing experience, domain knowledge and practical exposure to ensure effective transfer of knowledge and skills.

4. Faculty Strength and Composition

The University shall ensure that adequate numbers of qualified full-time faculty are available for all approved courses. At least 50% of the total teaching load (lectures and practical sessions combined) shall be delivered by full-time faculty members. The remaining portion may be handled by visiting faculty, subject to limits prescribed by DGS.

5. Visiting Faculty Engagement

Visiting faculty may be engaged to supplement academic delivery, provided they possess appropriate qualifications, instructional training and practical experience. The proportion of visiting faculty shall not exceed the limits prescribed by DGS, and their total teaching hours across institutions shall be within permissible limits. Visiting faculty shall preferably undergo Vertical Integration Course for Trainers (VICT) unless exempted as per guidelines.

6. Age Limits for Faculty and Instructors

The age of full-time faculty members, including Principal, shall ordinarily not exceed 70 years. Visiting faculty may be engaged up to 72 years of age. Instructors engaged in practical training shall not exceed 65 years of age. Faculty above 65 years shall be subject to annual medical fitness certification.

7. Teaching Hours Norms

The teaching workload shall comply with DGS-prescribed limits as follows:

- Principal – not exceeding 14 hours per week
- Vice-Principal – not exceeding 16 hours per week
- Full-time Faculty – not exceeding 18 hours per week
- Instructors – not exceeding 24 hours per week
- Visiting Faculty – not exceeding 18 hours per week across institutions

Where a faculty member holds multiple roles, the limits applicable to the higher responsibility shall apply.

8. Faculty Training and Upgradation

The University shall ensure continuous professional development and periodic upgradation of faculty through training programmes, refresher courses and industry exposure. Records of such training and competency development shall be maintained and made available for verification during inspections and audits.

9. Simulator and Assessment Competency

Faculty engaged in simulator-based training or assessment shall have appropriate operational experience and shall be trained in simulator instruction and assessment techniques. They shall also possess adequate understanding of the competencies to be assessed and relevant evaluation methodologies.

10. Academic and Supporting Faculty Qualifications

For academic subjects such as Mathematics, Physics, English, Engineering Sciences and allied disciplines, faculty shall possess minimum qualifications as prescribed by UGC or AICTE. For maritime professional subjects, DGS-prescribed qualifications shall prevail.

11. Faculty Records and Disclosure

The University shall maintain updated records of all faculty members, including qualifications, experience, certifications, teaching hours and compliance status, and shall display such details on the institutional website. Periodic reports shall be submitted to competent authorities as required.

12. Course Delivery Compliance

No maritime course shall be conducted without the prescribed number of qualified faculty as required under DGS guidelines. The University shall ensure that all courses are delivered strictly in compliance with approved course guidelines and faculty requirements.

Qualifications Prescribed for Faculty Members of Regular Disciplines in AMET

AMET prescribes the qualifications, eligibility conditions, recruitment procedures and service requirements for faculty members in the categories of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor in alignment with the provisions of the University Grants Commission (UGC) Regulations on Minimum Qualifications for Appointment of Teachers and Other Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges and the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) Regulations, as amended from time to time. All appointments, promotions, workload, evaluation and service conditions shall be governed by the applicable UGC and AICTE norms, and in the event of any inconsistency, the provisions of such statutory regulations shall prevail.

Engineering and Technology Departments

- ✓ In respect of Engineering and Technology disciplines such as Naval Architecture and Offshore Engineering, Petroleum Engineering, Computer Science and Engineering, Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Mechanical Engineering and other allied branches, the eligibility criteria for faculty appointments shall be as prescribed by the AICTE from time to time and may have following aspects.
- ✓ For the position of Assistant Professor, a candidate shall possess a First Class Master's Degree in the appropriate branch of Engineering or Technology. Wherever prescribed by AICTE, additional qualifications such as a Ph.D. degree or other certifications may be required or considered desirable. Preference shall be given to candidates having relevant teaching, research, industrial or professional experience in reputed organizations, along with evidence of publications in refereed journals or conferences and familiarity with modern teaching methodologies and laboratory practices.

- ✓ For the position of Associate Professor, a candidate shall ordinarily possess a Ph.D. degree in the relevant discipline, along with a First Class at either Bachelor's or Master's level, and shall have a minimum of eight years of experience in teaching, research or industry, excluding the period spent in obtaining the Ph.D. degree. In the case of candidates from industry, a First Class Master's Degree with significant professional experience of not less than eight years may be considered, provided the candidate has demonstrated substantial professional contribution in the relevant field. Any equivalence of professional experience to a Ph.D. degree shall be determined strictly in accordance with UGC/AICTE provisions and shall require evaluation by a duly constituted Expert Committee and approval of the competent authority. Desirable qualifications shall include research publications, patents, books or technical reports, experience in guiding postgraduate or research students and participation in sponsored research or consultancy.
- ✓ For the position of Professor, the candidate shall possess a Ph.D. degree in the relevant discipline with First Class at Bachelor's or Master's level and shall have a minimum of ten years of experience in teaching, research or industry, of which at least five years shall be at the level of Associate Professor or equivalent. In the case of industry professionals, candidates with a First Class Master's Degree and a minimum of ten years of experience, including at least five years in a senior position, may be considered, subject to demonstrated leadership and significant professional contribution at national or international level. Any such equivalence shall be assessed strictly in accordance with statutory norms. Preference shall be given to candidates with strong research credentials, evidence of doctoral guidance, academic leadership in curriculum development and the ability to lead research, consultancy and institutional initiatives.

Management Programmes (MBA / BBA)

For Management disciplines, including MBA and BBA programmes, the qualifications shall be in accordance with UGC and AICTE norms applicable to management education.

- ✓ For appointment as Assistant Professor, the candidate shall possess a First Class Master's Degree in Business Administration or equivalent discipline. Alternatively, a First Class graduate with professional qualifications such as CA, CMA or CS may be considered. Candidates with teaching, research or industry experience and publications shall be preferred.
- ✓ For the position of Associate Professor, the candidate shall possess a Master's Degree with not less than 55% marks along with a Ph.D. degree or Fellowship of IIM or equivalent qualification recognized by statutory authorities, and shall have a minimum of eight years of experience in teaching, research or industry. In the case of industry professionals, a Master's Degree with requisite marks or professional qualification, coupled with a minimum of ten years of experience including at least five years at a senior level, may be considered, subject to demonstration of professional contribution equivalent to academic research. Desirable attributes shall include publications, consultancy experience and guidance of postgraduate or research students.
- ✓ For appointment as Professor, the candidate shall possess a Master's Degree with not less than 55% marks along with a Ph.D. or equivalent Fellowship, and shall have a minimum of ten years of experience including at least five years at a senior level. Industry professionals with substantial leadership experience and significant contributions to the field may also be considered. Preference shall be given to candidates with academic leadership, research output and experience in institutional development.

Allied Departments (Sciences, Humanities and Physical Education)

For disciplines such as English, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physical Education and other allied subjects, the qualifications shall conform to UGC norms.

- ✓ For Assistant Professor, the candidate shall possess a Master's Degree with at least 55% marks in the relevant subject and shall have qualified NET, SLET or SET. Candidates holding a Ph.D. degree shall be exempted from NET/SLET/SET in accordance with UGC Regulations.
- ✓ For Associate Professor, the candidate shall possess a Ph.D. degree in the relevant discipline, with a minimum of eight years of teaching or research experience, along with at least five publications in refereed journals and evidence of research guidance, innovation and academic contribution.
- ✓ For Professor, the candidate shall possess a Ph.D. degree with a strong record of research publications, normally not less than ten publications in refereed journals, along with a minimum of ten years of experience and proven ability to guide doctoral candidates and contribute to academic innovation and curriculum development. Distinguished professionals with exceptional contributions to the field may also be considered as per UGC provisions.

Selection Process and Appointment Procedure

- ✓ All faculty appointments shall be made through a transparent, merit-based selection process in accordance with UGC, DGG and AICTE norms. Vacancies shall be widely advertised in national newspapers and on the University website, clearly specifying qualifications, experience, pay levels and application procedures.
- ✓ The Selection Committee shall be constituted in accordance with statutory requirements and shall include the Vice-Chancellor as Chairperson, nominee of the Chancellor where applicable, subject experts from outside the University, Dean of the Faculty or School, Head of the Department and nominee of the Executive Council. Representation of reserved categories shall be ensured wherever applicable as per Government norms. The quorum and functioning of the committee shall be as prescribed in applicable regulations.

- ✓ The selection process shall involve screening of applications, evaluation of academic credentials, assessment through seminar or presentation and personal interview. The academic score shall be evaluated in accordance with the performance appraisal framework prescribed by UGC/AICTE. The recommendations of the Selection Committee shall be placed before the Executive Council for approval, and appointments shall be made only upon such approval.

Workload and Responsibilities

- ✓ Faculty members shall adhere to the workload norms prescribed by UGC and AICTE. The total workload shall ordinarily be not less than forty hours per week, which shall include teaching, research, academic administration, mentoring, consultancy and institutional responsibilities. The teaching load shall be as prescribed by regulatory bodies and may vary depending on designation and institutional requirements.
- ✓ Faculty members shall actively participate in teaching-learning processes, research and publications, curriculum development, student mentoring, administrative duties and institutional development activities, including industry collaboration and consultancy.

Career Advancement Scheme (CAS)

- ✓ The Career Advancement Scheme shall be implemented strictly in accordance with UGC and AICTE Regulations. Promotion under CAS shall be based on Performance Based Appraisal System (PBAS) through Academic Performance Indicators (API) in areas such as academic performance, research output, teaching effectiveness and institutional contribution.

- ✓ Screening and selection committees for CAS shall be constituted as per UGC norms, and the evaluation shall be based on the prescribed performance appraisal system in force.

General Compliance

- ✓ All provisions relating to qualifications, recruitment, promotion, workload and service conditions shall be governed by the latest UGC and AICTE Regulations. Any amendments or revisions issued by statutory authorities shall automatically become applicable.
- ✓ Any deviation from these provisions shall require prior approval of the competent statutory authority.

CHAPTER 16

Appointment and Conditions of Service of Non-Teaching Staff of AMET

1. The power to create the required number of administrative and technical posts and to make appointments thereto in respect of non-teaching positions of the University shall vest with the Executive Council, subject to institutional requirements, financial viability and applicable statutory norms.
 - ✓ For administrative convenience, posts may be categorized into different classes or levels as determined by the University from time to time.
 - ✓ Services such as Peons, Attenders, Gardeners, Watchmen, Sweepers and such other posts may be grouped under support services, while ministerial, technical and supervisory positions shall be categorized appropriately in accordance with the approved organizational structure.
2. The non-teaching staff shall be classified into Class I, II, III and IV as defined in Chapter XV of the Rules and Regulations. However, the University may, wherever necessary, adopt appropriate nomenclature and classification structures consistent with contemporary administrative practices and regulatory expectations.
3. All employees of AMET shall be required to be on probation for a period of two years from the date of joining. This rule shall not apply to persons employed on a contractual basis. An employee shall be considered to have been confirmed or regularized only upon satisfactory completion of probation and issuance of written orders to that effect.
 - ✓ The period of probation may be extended at the discretion of the Executive Council, based on assessment of performance, conduct and suitability. If, at the end of the probation period or extended probation, the employee's performance is found to be unsatisfactory, appropriate action may be taken in accordance with the applicable service rules.

- ✓ A probationer shall not be deemed to have been confirmed merely by completion of the probation period in the absence of a formal order of confirmation.
4. The appointment of a probationer is liable to be terminated at any point of time during the probation period originally prescribed or subsequently extended in accordance with applicable service rules and subject to principles of fairness and due process, wherever required.
 5. "Temporary Staff" means an employee who has been appointed for a limited period of work or project which is of an essentially temporary nature or who is engaged temporarily as an additional employee in connection with a temporary increase in workload of a permanent or seasonal nature.
 - ✓ Such appointments shall be made for specific durations and shall not confer any claim for regular appointment unless otherwise provided under the Rules of the University.
 6. "Leave Vacancy" – As a general rule, substitutes for vacancies of less than 30 days shall not be appointed. Where the vacancy continues beyond 30 days, suitable persons may be appointed for the specific period.
 - ✓ Persons appointed against leave vacancies shall be engaged on purely temporary basis for the specified duration and shall not be entitled to any benefits other than the consolidated remuneration applicable for such engagement.
 7. "Confirmation" – On satisfactory completion of the period of probation, the Executive Council may confirm an employee by issuing a written order in the post to which he or she was recruited.

- ✓ If no such confirmation order is issued, the probationary period shall be deemed to continue until the date of confirmation.
 - ✓ Confirmation shall be based on evaluation of performance, conduct, integrity and overall suitability for the post.
8. "Transfer" – All staff members shall be liable to be transferred to any administrative section, department or unit of AMET.
- ✓ Such transfers shall be made in the interest of institutional administration, and the employee shall comply with the transfer order and report to the new place of posting within the prescribed time.
9. All employees of AMET shall be governed by the Disciplinary Proceedings and Employees Conduct Rules as provided in Annexure – A.

They shall also be subject to the Code of Conduct, service rules and all other policies of the University as amended from time to time.

CHAPTER 17

LEAVE RULES

General

1. Leave shall be granted in accordance with these Leave Rules.
2. Leave cannot be claimed by any employee as a matter of right.
3. The Registrar shall be the competent authority to sanction leave. - ✓ Casual Leave may be sanctioned up to a maximum of three days at a time, provided that the total absence in combination with holidays does not exceed the prescribed limit. Casual Leave shall not normally be granted on the reopening or closing day of academic sessions.

- ✓ Casual Leave may be prefixed or suffixed with holidays. Intervening holidays shall not be counted as Casual Leave.

Medical Leave

- ✓ Medical Leave shall be applicable to all permanent employees. There shall be no provision for lapse of Medical Leave.
- ✓ An employee shall be entitled to Medical Leave up to a maximum of four months during the entire service, subject to the following eligibility:
 - More than 2 years up to 5 years – 30 days
 - 5 to 10 years – 60 days
 - 10 to 15 years – 90 days
 - Above 15 years – 120 days
- ✓ Medical Leave shall be supported by a Medical Certificate issued by a Registered Medical Practitioner and shall be regularized on submission of a Fitness Certificate at the time of rejoining duty.
- ✓ The competent authority may, where necessary, require the employee to undergo medical examination by a Medical Officer designated by the University.
- ✓ Medical Leave shall not normally be combined with other kinds of leave. In exceptional cases, such combination may be permitted with the approval of the competent authority.

Earned Leave

- ✓ Earned Leave shall be applicable to employees who have completed the prescribed period of continuous service. Employees on probation or temporary employment shall not ordinarily be eligible.
- ✓ Earned Leave shall be calculated as follows:
 - Teaching staff (vacation staff): one day for every 30 days of service
 - Non-teaching staff: one day for every 24 days of service
- ✓ The maximum accumulation and availing limits shall be as prescribed by the University from time to time.
- ✓ Earned Leave shall be availed with prior approval of the competent authority and may be combined with holidays.

Holidays / Vacation

- ✓ The University may, from time to time, declare the number of holidays to be observed for each category of employees depending on the nature of duties and institutional requirements.

On Duty

- ✓ An employee deputed for official work of the University, including examinations, inspections, meetings, administrative assignments, or participation in academic activities such as conferences, seminars, workshops, faculty development programmes or training programmes, shall be treated as "On Duty" with prior approval of the competent authority.
- ✓ The period of such deputation shall be treated as duty and not as leave.

Maternity Leave

- ✓ Maternity Leave shall be granted to eligible women employees in accordance with Government of India norms as amended from time to time.
- ✓ The duration, eligibility conditions and benefits shall be governed by statutory provisions and University policies.

Paternity Leave / Child Care Leave

- ✓ Paternity Leave shall be granted to eligible employees having less than two surviving children for a period of 15 days in accordance with Government of India norms.
- ✓ Child Care Leave may be granted to eligible women employees subject to prescribed conditions and limits as notified by the University.

Sabbatical Leave/FIP

- ✓ Sabbatical Leave may be granted to eligible teaching staff who have completed the prescribed period of service, for the purpose of research, academic writing or other scholarly activities like Faculty Induction Programme (FIP).
- ✓ Such leave shall be governed by UGC norms and shall be subject to approval of the Executive Council.

Late and Permission

- ✓ Employees shall be permitted limited short-duration permissions in a month subject to institutional rules.
- ✓ Exceeding such limits may result in deduction of eligible leave or treatment as leave on loss of pay as per applicable rules.

Leave Travel Concession

- ✓ Leave Travel Concession may be granted to eligible employees in accordance with University rules.
- ✓ The eligibility, entitlement and conditions shall be governed by institutional policy as approved by the Executive Council.

PROCEDURE FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE

1. Authorities Empowered to Grant Leave

- i. All leave applications shall be submitted through the respective Head of the Department/Controlling Officer to the Registrar.
- ii. The Registrar shall be the competent authority to sanction routine leave.

Special leave categories shall be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor based on recommendations of the Registrar, in accordance with delegated powers.
- iii. All administrative and non-teaching staff shall submit leave applications through their immediate superior.
- iv. Unauthorized absence or overstayal of leave shall be treated as misconduct and dealt with under disciplinary rules.

2. Power to Refuse or Recall an Employee on Leave

- ✓ Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. The competent authority may refuse, postpone, curtail or revoke leave in the interest of the University.
- ✓ An employee may be recalled to duty where necessary.

3. Obligation to Furnish Leave Address

- ✓ An employee proceeding on leave shall furnish leave address, contact number and e-mail to the competent authority and shall keep the authority informed of any changes.

CHAPTER 18

Disciplinary Proceedings

1. Appointment, promotion, suspension, dismissal from service of the permanent staff of AMET shall be made by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Committee that may be constituted by the Board from time to time. In respect of the temporary staff such appointments are made by the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Registrar, who shall also be the officer entitled to against such order of the Vice-Chancellor, appeal lies to the Executive Council and it shall be preferred by the employee within 30 days from the date of communication of such order. All cases of dismissal by the Vice-chancellor shall be reported to the Executive Council.
2. When an employee is alleged to have committed misconduct, the authority shall issue memo calling for preliminary explanation. On receipt of such explanation, if the authority finds that there is no prima-facie evidence, further proceedings shall be dropped. On the other hand even after the preliminary explanation, if the authority finds that there is prima-facie case and facial misconduct is serious so as to proceed further, it is open to the Authority to keep the employee under suspension pending disciplinary proceedings.
3. The authority thereafter shall frame charges with specific instances against delinquent employee with the support of materials calling upon the employee to submit his explanation within the specified time or any other extended period as may be decided by the authority.

On receipt of the explanation either appointing authority himself or through the enquiry officer appointed for that purpose the enquiry may be proceeded with by examining the witnesses of AMET and giving opportunities to the delinquent employee to defend himself.

The entire proceedings of the enquiry officer shall be in the form of reports duly authenticated by him and along with the proceedings; enquiry officer shall submit his detailed report to the appointing authority for further action.

4. After receiving the report of the enquiry officer, if the appointing authority decides that the delinquent is guilty of charges framed against him and is liable for major punishments of removal from services or dismissal or compulsory retirement or reduction in rank, the appointing authority shall give second notice to the delinquent calling upon him to give explanation regarding proposed punishment within the prescribed time. After the explanation is received from the delinquent, the appointing authority shall pass final orders.
5. All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice and confidentiality shall be maintained at all stages of the proceedings.
6. In case of disciplinary proceedings the authority is entitled to constitute or appoint an enquiry officer who shall give reasonable opportunity to the delinquent employee and submit his report to the appointing authority.
 - a) Without prejudice to the provisions of any other rule, an employee who commits a willful breach of any of these Rules or of any of his duties, or who displays negligence, inefficiency or negligently causes any loss or damage to its properties, or who knowingly willfully or intentionally does anything detrimental to the interests or prestige of the University or in conflict with its instructions or who commits a breach of discipline or guilty of disobedience or of any other act of misconduct or misbehavior shall be liable to penalties.

b) An employee is liable to be punished by a fine, suspension, degradation, reversion, and stoppage of increments, forfeiture of leave or dismissal, for misbehavior, misconduct, and negligence of duty, dishonesty, indiscipline, disobedience and other similar deficiencies. The nature of punishment will be decided by the concerned authority taking into consideration the seriousness of the charge. Appeal against the orders of any punishments by the Officer / Authority of AMET should be preferred to the Chancellor.

c) In all cases where the services of the employee have been dispensed with, as a punishment, he / she shall be entitled to receive the pay, only up to the date of termination of his / her services and shall not have any claim whatsoever to any other benefits in AMET.

7. In the event of the employee inflicted with the major punishment the employee shall have the right of appeal to the Chancellor within 30 days from the date of receipt of the order by him. The Chancellor on receipt of such an appeal and on the basis of the enquiry conducted shall pass final orders. The order of the Chancellor in this regard shall be final.

CHAPTER 19

Conduct of Examinations, Appointment of Examiners and Publication of Results

Conduct of Examinations

1. The Executive Council shall conduct the examinations for Degrees and Diplomas based on the academic regulations, schemes and syllabi approved by the Academic Council and implemented through the office of the Controller of Examinations.
2. The Executive Council shall have the power to approve and publish the results on the recommendations of the Controller of Examinations through the Vice Chancellor, after completion of valuation, moderation and tabulation processes in accordance with the prescribed regulations.
3. All examinations shall be held in the Campus of AMET in Chennai and in such other places as may be fixed by the Executive Council. The University may also conduct examinations in approved off-campus centres or through online or digital modes, subject to regulatory provisions and approval of competent authorities.
4. The date, schedule and periodicity of the examinations shall be decided by the Controller of Examinations with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and in conformity with the academic calendar approved by the Academic Council.
5. Examinations shall not ordinarily be conducted on gazetted holidays. However, the Executive Council may, for special reasons, decide to hold examinations on such holidays.

6. All examinations except practical and viva voce examinations shall be conducted by means of printed, typed or digital/online question papers and shall ordinarily be set and answered in English. The University may adopt secure digital examination systems, online proctored examinations or hybrid modes in accordance with applicable guidelines.
7. The Controller of Examinations shall appoint Examiners, Chief Superintendent(s), Camp Officer(s), Invigilators and other examination personnel as per the instructions of the Vice-Chancellor. The Chief Superintendent shall be responsible for the overall conduct of examinations at the examination centre, and the Camp Officer shall assist in coordination, custody of materials and operational management.
8. The Controller of Examinations, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, may at any time cancel the appointment of any Examiner or examination personnel for valid reasons including conflict of interest, misconduct, inefficiency or breach of confidentiality.
9. Examiners appointed by the Controller of Examinations shall be of the following categories:
 - i) Examiners (Question Paper Setters) who shall set the question papers for the examinations;
 - ii) Examiners (Valuers) who shall evaluate the answer scripts.

All examiners shall be selected from approved panels based on qualifications, experience and subject expertise, ensuring confidentiality and impartiality.

10. Each Board of Studies or such academic body constituted by the Academic Council shall have a Chairman.

The Chairman of the respective Board shall recommend panels of examiners to the Controller of Examinations.

Additional Examiners shall be appointed to assist in valuation of answer scripts and conduct of practical examinations. Additional Examiners shall not be members of the Board.

11. Question Paper Setters shall be appointed by the Controller of Examinations from the panel of Examiners recommended by the Chairman of the respective Board, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

The entire process of question paper setting, moderation, printing, storage and distribution shall be conducted under strict confidentiality and security protocols as prescribed by the University.

Valuation, Moderation and Result Processing

12. The valuation of answer scripts shall be carried out by appointed Examiners under the supervision of the Controller of Examinations. Centralized valuation, digital valuation or on-screen evaluation systems may be adopted to ensure transparency, accuracy and timeliness.
13. The University may adopt moderation procedures, including double valuation, revaluation, scrutiny or moderation boards, wherever necessary, to ensure fairness and uniformity in assessment.
14. The tabulation of marks shall be carried out by the office of the Controller of Examinations, and all records shall be maintained securely.

Appropriate checks, audits and verification procedures shall be followed before declaration of results.

Publication of Results

15. The results of examinations shall be published by the Controller of Examinations after approval of the Vice-Chancellor and placed before the Executive Council for ratification in accordance with the provisions of the University.

16. The results shall be communicated to candidates through official channels of the University. The University may publish results through secure online portals ensuring data integrity and confidentiality.

17. The Controller of Examinations shall issue grade sheets, mark statements, provisional certificates and other academic records. Degrees shall be awarded only after approval of the competent authorities and conferment in accordance with Convocation procedures.

Malpractice and Unfair Means

18. Any candidate found using unfair means or indulging in malpractice during examinations shall be liable for disciplinary action.

19. All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

- ✓ Such cases shall be dealt with in accordance with the rules framed by the University, ensuring adherence to principles of natural justice, including opportunity to be heard.
- ✓ Penalties may include cancellation of examination, withholding of results, debarring from future examinations or any other action as deemed appropriate.

General Provisions

19. The Controller of Examinations shall be the custodian of all examination records.

20. The conduct of examinations shall be governed by the Rules and Regulations of the University, UGC guidelines and other statutory provisions as applicable.

21. The Executive Council shall have the power to frame, amend or modify examination regulations from time to time based on the recommendations of the Academic Council.

CHAPTER 20

CONVOCATION

1. Convocation of the University

- ✓ Convocation of AMET shall be held for the purpose of conferring Degrees upon candidates who have been duly certified to be qualified.
- ✓ The Convocation shall be held on such date and at such place as may be decided by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor.
- ✓ The Convocation shall be presided over by the Chancellor, and in his/her absence, by the Vice-Chancellor or such other person as may be authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Memorandum of Association.
- ✓ The detailed ceremonial procedure, sequence of events and conduct of Convocation shall be governed by the "Form of Procedure" approved for each Convocation.

CHAPTER 21

Hostel Rules and Regulations

1. Eligibility and Accommodation

- ✓ All bonafide students admitted to the programmes of the University shall be eligible for admission to the Hostels, subject to availability of accommodation and fulfillment of prescribed conditions. The academic session shall ordinarily commence at the end of July, and the term breaks shall normally be scheduled during May/June and December, as notified by the University from time to time.
- ✓ Cadets/Students shall be accommodated in dormitories or rooms, typically fitted with double bunks (one over the other), depending upon the nature of the programme and availability of space. Separate accommodation shall be provided for female students in designated hostel blocks to ensure privacy, safety and appropriate supervision.
- ✓ Each inmate shall be provided with essential furniture and items such as a cot/bed, mattress, table, chair, cupboard, bucket and mug. All furniture and fixtures shall be duly numbered and recorded to ensure accountability and to fix responsibility in the event of damage or loss.
- ✓ Rooms shall be allotted strictly based on roll numbers or as determined by the Hostel Administration, and no student shall be permitted to change or exchange rooms under any circumstances without prior written approval of the Warden/Proctor. Unauthorized occupation of any room other than the one allotted shall be treated as a serious violation of hostel discipline.
- ✓ Students shall be responsible for maintaining their rooms in a neat, clean and orderly condition at all times. They shall make their own beds, arrange their belongings properly and ensure hygienic living conditions. In case of damage to linen or hostel property issued to them, the cost of repair or replacement shall be recovered from the concerned student(s).

2. Administration of Hostels

- ✓ The overall administration, control and policy decisions relating to the Hostels shall vest with the Registrar, subject to the authority of the Vice-Chancellor and the provisions of the University Rules and Regulations.
- ✓ The Proctor shall function as the operational officer for the Hostels and shall be responsible for the day-to-day supervision, coordination, monitoring and enforcement of hostel discipline, movement regulations and compliance with hostel rules.
- ✓ The Wardens, Duty Officers, Security Personnel and other supporting staff shall function under the coordination and supervision of the Proctor for operational purposes, while remaining accountable to the Registrar as the competent authority.
- ✓ For effective governance and participatory management, there shall be a Hostel Management Committee to oversee overall hostel administration, infrastructure, facilities and student welfare, and a Mess Committee to supervise mess operations, food quality, hygiene and related matters. These Committees shall function under the authority of the Registrar and shall be coordinated by the Proctor.

3. Room Discipline and Maintenance

- ✓ Students shall not alter, rearrange or modify the layout of furniture and fixtures in hostel rooms, recreation rooms, classrooms or any other institutional facilities.
- ✓ They shall maintain cleanliness and hygiene not only within their rooms but also in corridors, staircases, bathrooms and common areas. Throwing waste inside hostel premises or outside through windows is strictly prohibited.

- ✓ Students shall take adequate care of their personal belongings and shall ensure that cupboards and rooms are securely locked when not in use.

4. Fees and Deposits

- ✓ Every student admitted to the hostel shall pay a caution deposit, which shall be refundable at the time of completion of the course or exit from the hostel, subject to deduction of any dues or damages.
- ✓ The mess charges, room rent, establishment charges and other applicable fees shall be notified by the University from time to time and shall be payable as per prescribed schedule.

5. Admission and Continuation

- ✓ No student shall reside in the hostel without obtaining prior approval from the University authorities.
- ✓ Students shall not vacate the hostel during the academic year without prior permission of the Registrar, and any unauthorized vacation shall be treated as a violation of hostel rules.
- ✓ Fees paid towards hostel accommodation and facilities shall not ordinarily be refundable.

6. Presence During Working Hours

- ✓ Students shall not remain in their hostel rooms during working hours of the University. They shall attend academic sessions, training programmes, drills and other institutional activities as required.
- ✓ In exceptional circumstances, students may remain in the hostel during working hours only with prior permission from the Warden/Proctor, stating valid reasons.

- ✓ Students shall vacate the hostel premises before commencement of classes (normally before 0825 hrs), and entry into hostel during academic hours shall not be permitted without approval of the competent authority.

7. Hostel Timings and Attendance

- ✓ Hostel timings may be prescribed separately for different hostels based on safety, security and operational considerations, as notified by the University from time to time. Students shall strictly adhere to hostel timings as prescribed by the University.
- ✓ The hostel gates shall ordinarily be closed by 2030 hrs and shall remain closed until the prescribed opening time on the following day.
- ✓ Attendance/Roll Call shall be conducted at night (normally around 2100 hrs), and all students shall remain present in their respective rooms during attendance.
- ✓ Students found absent during attendance shall be marked absent, and such absence may attract disciplinary action including fines and intimation to parents/guardians.

8. Leave, Movement and Gate Pass

- ✓ Students shall not leave the hostel or remain absent without obtaining prior permission from the Registrar/Proctor.
- ✓ Leave shall normally be granted only with the knowledge and consent of parents/guardians and shall be recorded appropriately.
- ✓ All movements of students shall be entered in the IN/OUT registers maintained at the hostel or security points. Students shall carry valid identity cards at all times while leaving the campus.

- ✓ Short shore leave may be permitted during specified hours (normally between 1500 hrs and 1715 hrs), subject to approval of the Proctor and compliance with institutional regulations.
- ✓ Students shall not remain outside the campus during night hours under any circumstances.

9. Discipline and Conduct

- ✓ Students shall maintain strict discipline, decorum and orderly conduct within the hostel premises. Any act of indiscipline, misconduct, argument or confrontation with hostel authorities including Warden, Proctor, Duty Officer or Security Personnel shall be viewed seriously.
- ✓ Unauthorized movement between hostels, entry into restricted areas or violation of timing and movement regulations shall attract disciplinary action.
- ✓ Students shall not organize or participate in any meetings, gatherings, celebrations or parties within the hostel premises.

10. Responsibility for Property

- ✓ All furniture, fixtures, fittings and equipment provided in hostel rooms and common areas shall remain under the joint responsibility of the occupants.
- ✓ Any damage caused to hostel property due to negligence, misuse or intentional act shall be recovered from the concerned individual(s) or collectively from residents, along with applicable penalty.

11. Medical Facilities

- ✓ The University shall provide basic medical facilities through its Medical Officer.
- ✓ Students shall report illness to the Warden/Duty Officer and follow prescribed medical procedures.

- ✓ Expenses towards hospitalization or major medical treatment shall be borne by the student.
- ✓ Students shall comply with all health and vaccination requirements as prescribed by the University.

12. Academic and Study Requirements

- ✓ Students shall bring their own writing materials, including pens, pencils, notebooks, geometry box and non-programmable scientific calculator.
- ✓ Textbooks, drawing materials and other academic resources may be issued by the University as required.
- ✓ Students shall utilize hostel and campus facilities such as study rooms, library and academic support systems effectively.

13. Amenities and Common Facilities

- ✓ The hostel shall provide common facilities such as cafeteria, dining hall, recreation rooms, indoor games, gymnasium, television facilities, study areas and other institutional amenities.
- ✓ Students shall use these facilities responsibly, maintain discipline and ensure proper upkeep.
- ✓ Use of such facilities shall be governed by prescribed timings and regulations.

14. Mess and Dining

- ✓ All hostel residents shall be members of the mess.
- ✓ Mess timings shall be observed strictly as notified.
- ✓ Discipline, cleanliness and decorum shall be maintained in dining areas.
- ✓ Food shall not be taken to hostel rooms except in case of illness with permission.

- ✓ The Mess Committee shall supervise mess operations under the coordination of the Proctor.

15. Safety, Security and Prohibited Activities

- ✓ Students shall not engage in ragging, smoking, drinking, use of drugs, gambling or any other prohibited activities.
- ✓ Use of electrical appliances, cooking inside rooms and bringing outside food into hostel premises are prohibited.
- ✓ Students shall comply with all safety instructions and shall not enter restricted areas.
- ✓ CCTV surveillance and security monitoring shall be in operation.

16. Visitors and Communication

- ✓ Visitors shall be permitted only with prior approval and shall be restricted to designated areas.
- ✓ Communication facilities shall be used only as per institutional rules.

17. Personal Belongings and Liability

- ✓ Students shall be responsible for their personal belongings.
- ✓ The University shall not be responsible for loss or damage of personal property.

18. Discipline and Enforcement

- ✓ The Warden shall enforce hostel discipline under the supervision of the Proctor.
- ✓ The Proctor shall coordinate operational control of hostels.
- ✓ The Registrar shall be the competent authority for all decisions relating to hostel administration.

- ✓ Any violation of hostel rules shall be treated as misconduct and dealt with under Disciplinary Proceedings of the University.

19. Power to Amend

The University reserves the right to amend, modify or revise the Hostel Rules and Regulations from time to time based on institutional requirements and administrative necessity.

16. Subsistence Allowance

An employee who is placed under suspension shall be entitled to subsistence allowance during the period of suspension, as may be determined by the Executive Council, subject to applicable rules.

The subsistence allowance shall ordinarily not exceed one half of the basic pay along with such proportion of allowances as may be prescribed by the University from time to time.

ANNEXURE – B
CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS FOR AMET TEACHERS

Preamble

Goal of Higher Education in the Country

- ✓ The fundamental purpose of higher education is to create and disseminate knowledge, develop skills and foster awareness of the rich national heritage and the achievements of human civilization. It aims to cultivate a scientific outlook, intellectual curiosity and a deep commitment to the ideals of patriotism, democracy, secularism, social justice and peace, as enshrined in the Preamble to the Constitution of India.
- ✓ Higher education institutions are entrusted with the responsibility of producing capable individuals who can emerge as leaders in various domains of society and the economy, equipped with competence, integrity and commitment to national development.
- ✓ In alignment with the principles and vision of the National Education Policy 2020, higher education shall promote holistic, multidisciplinary and flexible learning systems that emphasize critical thinking, creativity, ethical reasoning and lifelong learning.
- ✓ Higher education shall also contribute to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals by fostering inclusive, equitable and quality education and by encouraging responsible citizenship, environmental consciousness and sustainable development practices.
- ✓ The system shall emphasize skill-based, competency-driven and outcome-oriented education, ensuring that graduates are employable, entrepreneurial and capable of addressing real-world challenges.
- ✓ In the context of emerging technological and industrial transformations, including Industry 5.0 and advancements in Artificial Intelligence and related domains, higher education shall prepare learners to adapt to dynamic global environments while maintaining a human-centric, ethical and socially responsible approach.

- ✓ Higher education shall strive for academic excellence and promote the advancement of arts, science, education, research and extension activities in alignment with national priorities and societal needs. It shall also ensure that the intellectual resources of the nation contribute meaningfully to global knowledge systems and international cooperation.

Teachers and Their Rights

- ✓ Teachers, being central to the academic and intellectual life of the University, shall enjoy full civic and political rights as citizens of a democratic nation. They shall be entitled to:
 - Adequate and fair emoluments;
 - Appropriate social and professional status;
 - Just and equitable conditions of service;
 - Academic freedom and professional independence;
 - Adequate social security and welfare measures.
- ✓ These rights shall be exercised responsibly and in a manner consistent with the dignity of the teaching profession and the objectives of higher education.

CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

I. Teachers and Their Responsibilities

- ✓ Any person who adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself/herself in accordance with the highest ethical standards and ideals of the profession.

- ✓ A teacher is continuously under the observation of students and society at large. Therefore, every teacher shall ensure that there is complete consistency between his/her conduct and the values he/she seeks to impart. The national ideals of education which the teacher is expected to inculcate among students shall be reflected in his/her own behaviour and professional practice.
- ✓ Teachers shall maintain a calm, patient, approachable and communicative disposition and shall demonstrate fairness, objectivity and integrity in all academic and professional dealings.

Teachers shall:

- i. Adhere to a responsible pattern of conduct and demeanor expected of them by the academic community and society at large;
- ii. Manage their private affairs in a manner consistent with the dignity and decorum of the teaching profession;
- iii. Continuously strive for professional growth through study, research, training and academic engagement;
- iv. Express free and frank academic opinions through participation in seminars, conferences, workshops and professional forums, contributing constructively to the advancement of knowledge;
- v. Maintain active membership in professional organizations and contribute to the improvement of education and academic standards;
- vi. Perform their teaching responsibilities, including lectures, tutorials, practical sessions and seminars, with dedication, sincerity and continuity;
- vii. Cooperate and assist in academic and administrative responsibilities of the University, including student admissions, academic advising, counseling, and conduct of examinations such as supervision, invigilation and evaluation;

viii. Participate actively in extension activities, co-curricular and extracurricular programmes, including community service and outreach activities.

II. Teachers and Students

Teachers shall recognize the centrality of students in the academic process and shall uphold their rights, dignity and individuality.

Teachers shall:

- i. Respect the rights, dignity and freedom of students in expressing their views and opinions;
- ii. Deal with students impartially and without discrimination based on religion, caste, gender, economic status, social background or physical ability;
- iii. Recognize individual differences in aptitude and capabilities among students and make efforts to address their specific learning needs;
- iv. Encourage students to improve their academic performance, develop their personality and contribute positively to society;
- v. Inculcate scientific temper, respect for labour and the values of democracy, patriotism and peace among students;
- vi. Maintain a caring and supportive attitude towards students and refrain from any form of vindictive or biased behaviour;
- vii. Assess students solely on the basis of merit, performance and academic achievement;
- viii. Make themselves available to students beyond classroom hours for academic guidance and support, without expectation of any remuneration or reward;
- ix. Help students develop awareness of national heritage, national goals and global perspectives;

- x. Refrain from inciting students against other students, faculty members or the administration of the University.

III. Teachers and Colleagues

Teachers shall maintain professional relationships with colleagues based on mutual respect, cooperation and integrity.

Teachers shall:

- Treat fellow teachers with respect, fairness and professional courtesy;
- Speak respectfully about colleagues and avoid derogatory or defamatory remarks;
- Assist colleagues in professional development and academic advancement;
- Refrain from making unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues;
- Ensure that considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or gender do not influence professional interactions or decisions.

IV. Teachers and Authorities

Teachers shall maintain a constructive and cooperative relationship with University authorities and contribute positively to institutional governance.

Teachers shall:

- a) Discharge their professional responsibilities in accordance with the rules, regulations and procedures of the University, and seek changes through appropriate institutional mechanisms where required;
- b) Refrain from engaging in any employment, private tuition or coaching activities that interfere with their academic responsibilities;

- c) Cooperate with University authorities in the formulation and implementation of academic and administrative policies;
- d) Participate in institutional governance through committees, bodies and professional organizations, where required;
- e) Work in cooperation with authorities for the overall development of the University, maintaining the dignity of the profession;
- f) Adhere strictly to the terms and conditions of their appointment and service;
- g) Provide due notice before leaving service or changing positions, in accordance with rules;
- h) Avail leave only on valid grounds and, as far as possible, with prior intimation, ensuring that academic schedules are not disrupted.

V. Teachers and Non-Teaching Staff

Teachers shall recognize non-teaching staff as essential partners in the functioning of the institution.

Teachers shall:

- i. Treat non-teaching staff with respect and dignity, recognizing them as colleagues in a cooperative institutional environment;
- ii. Extend cooperation and support in the functioning of joint staff bodies and institutional activities involving both teaching and non-teaching staff.

VI. Teachers and Guardians

Teachers shall maintain appropriate communication and engagement with the parents or guardians of students.

Teachers shall:

- Participate in meetings convened for interaction with parents/guardians;
- Share relevant information regarding student performance, conduct and development where necessary;
- Encourage constructive dialogue for the benefit of students and the institution.

VII. Teachers and Society

Teachers shall recognize that education is a public service and shall act as responsible members of society.

Teachers shall:

- i. Keep the public informed about educational programmes and institutional initiatives;
- ii. Work towards improvement of education and strengthening of moral and intellectual life in society;
- iii. Be aware of social issues and actively participate in activities that contribute to societal development;
- iv. Perform duties of responsible citizenship and participate in community service and public initiatives;
- v. Refrain from engaging in or supporting any activity that promotes hatred, division or enmity among communities, and actively work towards national integration and social harmony.

ANNEXURE – C

Code of Conduct and Discipline for Prevention of Sexual Harassment

Preamble

- ✓ This policy for prevention, prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment is framed with the objective of ensuring that all members of the University community are able to function in an environment that is safe, secure, dignified and free from any form of sexual harassment, intimidation or exploitation.
- ✓ The provisions of this policy shall apply to all students, faculty members, officers, administrative staff, contractual employees, research scholars, hostel residents and any other persons associated with AMET either directly or indirectly.
- ✓ The University shall take all necessary measures to prevent and prohibit sexual harassment in any form and shall provide effective mechanisms for redressal of complaints in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws and regulations.
- ✓ This policy is framed in accordance with the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and the relevant guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission from time to time, and shall be read in conjunction with the Code of Conduct, Disciplinary Rules and other applicable provisions of the University.
- ✓ The University shall also undertake awareness programmes, sensitization initiatives and preventive measures to promote a culture of mutual respect, equality and gender justice within the campus.

Constitution of Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee

The Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee of AMET shall function as the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) for the purpose of prevention and redressal of complaints relating to sexual harassment.

The Committee shall be constituted with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and shall consist of the following members:

1. A senior woman faculty member as the Presiding Officer/Convener of the Committee, who shall be responsible for ensuring that the proceedings are conducted in a fair, impartial and sensitive manner;
2. One external member from a recognized Non-Governmental Organization or association committed to the cause of women or having experience in dealing with issues relating to sexual harassment;
3. Members from among the teaching faculty representing different disciplines of the University;
4. Members from among the non-teaching staff to ensure adequate administrative representation;
5. Wardens or representatives from hostel administration, particularly to address issues arising within residential facilities;
6. Student representatives, with due consideration to gender representation and sensitivity.

The composition of the Committee shall be in accordance with statutory requirements and shall ensure diversity, neutrality and gender sensitivity.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment shall include any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour, whether directly or by implication which may be in line with the prevailing acts of Govt or UGC guidelines:

- Physical contact and advances, including any form of inappropriate touching;
- Demand or request for sexual favours, whether expressed directly or indirectly;
- Making sexually coloured remarks, comments, jokes or insinuations;
- Showing, displaying or circulating pornographic or obscene material in any form;
- Sending unwelcome messages, communications or content through electronic or digital means;
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

Sexual harassment shall also include any act that creates an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or offensive environment or that interferes with an individual's academic or professional performance.

Procedure for Registering Complaints

- ✓ Any aggrieved person may submit a complaint in writing to any member of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee.
- ✓ Such complaints may also be submitted through institutional grievance redressal mechanisms, online grievance portals of the University or through any designated authority, who shall forward the complaint to the Committee within a reasonable time.

- ✓ In appropriate cases, complaints may also be made by a third party or witness with the consent of the aggrieved person.
- ✓ All complaints shall be recorded in writing and acknowledged by the Committee.
- ✓ Confidentiality shall be strictly maintained at all stages of the complaint and enquiry process, and necessary steps shall be taken to protect the identity and dignity of the complainant.

Procedure to be Followed by the Committee

- ✓ Upon receipt of a complaint, the Committee shall examine the same and determine whether a prima facie case exists.
- ✓ For this purpose, the Committee may interact with the complainant, respondent and any other relevant persons, and may examine documents and evidence available.
- ✓ If a prima facie case is established, the Committee shall initiate a formal enquiry in accordance with the principles of natural justice, ensuring that both parties are given adequate opportunity to present their case.
- ✓ The Committee shall conduct the enquiry in a fair, impartial and gender-sensitive manner and shall ensure that confidentiality is maintained throughout the proceedings.
- ✓ Where appropriate and with the consent of the complainant, the Committee may attempt conciliation in accordance with statutory provisions, provided that such conciliation does not involve monetary settlement.
- ✓ During the enquiry, the Committee shall examine witnesses, consider evidence and record statements.

- ✓ All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- ✓ Confidentiality shall be maintained at all stages of the proceedings.
- ✓ Upon completion of the enquiry, the Committee shall prepare a detailed report containing the allegations, evidence, findings and conclusions, and shall submit the same to the competent authority within the prescribed time.
- ✓ A copy of the report shall also be made available to the concerned parties.

Action and Disciplinary Measures

- ✓ If the respondent is found guilty of sexual harassment, the Committee shall recommend appropriate disciplinary action based on the nature, gravity and impact of the misconduct.
- ✓ Such action shall be taken in accordance with the Service Rules, Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Proceedings of the University.
- ✓ The disciplinary measures shall also take into consideration the safety, dignity and well-being of the complainant and the overall interest of maintaining discipline and integrity within the University.
